Every historic city has its share of ghost stories and Savannah is no exception. Savannah was voted "the most haunted city in America" for 2002. Join us, if you dare, for this tour featuring the spirited side of our city. You will shiver to the legends, myths and hauntings in this frightfully fun experience. Our Ghost Guide will fill your imagination with tales from Savannah's storied past.

Hear the tales that made Savannah the "Most Haunted City in America". Follow your guide to more than 10 haunted sights as in your search for the spirits that still roam the corridors of Savannah. Join us tonight for a Tour of the Dead

April 21st – Saturday – Free day - Savannah Theatre (evening)

Free day to enjoy Savannah and in the evening you will enjoy this historic Theatre.

The talented Savannah Theatre cast puts on an array of performances throughout the year full of energy and great tunes. Current, past and upcoming performances have included Jukebox Journey, which features hit songs from the 1940s to 70s; Savannah Live, a variety show with pop, Broadway, Motown and rock music; The Beat Goes On, with music from the 1960s, 70s and 80s; and Christmas Tradition, a glitzy holiday performance with Christmas standards. The building that houses the theatre, the Historic Savannah Theatre, is steeped in history. The theatre, which considers itself the oldest in America, first opened its doors in 1818 and has undergone several renovations over the years.
